A homeowner leans over his fence, holding a baseball, and shouts to two small boys on the other side of the street, "Is this your ball?" "Did it hit anything, mister?" one of the boys asks. "Nope!" "Then, yup! It's ours," says the other boy with a smile.

Teacher: "Now, Susan, how many fingers have you?"
Susan: "Ten."
Teacher: "Right. Now if you lost four of them, what would you have?"
Susan: "No more piano lessons."

Saleswoman: "When this baby doll is put to bed, it goes to sleep just like a real baby."
Mrs. Williams: "Whoever made it didn't know much about real babies."

Little Johnny: "Hey Mom, tomorrow there's a small PTA meeting at school."
Mom: "A small PTA meeting?"
Little Johnny: "Yeah, just you, me, and the principal."

As she slid behind the wheel for her first driving lesson, my daughter couldn't contain her excitement. "You need to make adjustments, so the car is comfortable for you as the driver," I began. "Now, what's the first thing you should do?" "Change the radio station," she said.

Me: "I wanna travel!"
My bank account: "Like... to the backyard, you mean?"
